VALUABLE
LAND
NEAR WHALEYVILLE
FOR SALE.

By authority of a deed of trust executed by James Daughtrey and Missouri E., his wife, on the 17th day of May, 1875, and duly recorded, to secure the payment of a certain debt, as therein specified, the undersigned, trustee, will offer for sale at public auction, before the Courthouse door of Nansemond county, Va., on the 9th Day of December, 1878,

(being court day), all that parcel or tract of LAND in said county, containing 350 acres, more or less, and bounded by the Somerton county road, the lands of C. F. Norment (lately owned by Thos. W. Savage), by the Willis Wiggins land and by the lands of others, being the same land devised to said Missouri E. Daughtrey by her father, Joshua Bryant, deceased, by his will, duly recorded.

This tract of land is on the east side of said Somerton county road, and at Whaleyville, the terminus of the Suffolk Lumber Company's Railroad, in a thrifty neighborhood, and is a valuable tract.

TERMS: Expenses of sale and $500 cash, and balance on a credit of three months; the purchaser to give bond and security for the deferred payment, and title retained till all the purchase money is paid.

WILBUR J. KILBY,
GEO. T. PARKER, Auctioneer. TRUSTEE.
